Dear Mr Kossi,

Warm greetings from the entire Santos Creations Educational Foundation (SCEF) family.

Following our enriching meeting on October 6, 2025, we are pleased to formally confirm the FAWE partnership and advisory participation within the NESA-Africa 2025/2027 and EduAid-Africa 2025–2027 continental frameworks.

This collaboration embodies our shared mission — strengthening inclusive, gender-responsive education systems and elevating the voices of educators, learners, and women leaders across Africa.

Together, we aim to connect advocacy, recognition, and policy influence through structured, interactive, and gender-balanced dialogue that promotes sustainable impact and evidence-based education reform.

Representation & Governance

FAWE Africa will hold a permanent advisory seat on the SCEF Continental Board of Advisors (BOA).

Representation includes two (2) members from FAWE HQ (Principal + Alternate) and one (1) Thematic Advisor for Girls' Education / Gender from each of the 35 FAWE national chapters.

Representatives may be renewed or replaced every 24 months by written notice to SCEF HQ.

FAWE representatives will serve across both the NESA-Africa Advisory & Governance Council and the EduAid-Africa Advisory Council, ensuring consistency and shared oversight.

Visibility, Participation & Roles (2025–2026 Cycle)

Activity	Timeline / Format	FAWE's Role
EduAid-Africa Webinar Series	Oct 2025 – Jun 2026 (Online via Zoho × NESA TV × LinkedIn Live)	Each episode is interactive and gender-balanced. FAWE ensures equitable participation and inclusion. Each FAWE chapter will nominate at least two (2) participants per episode and one (1) rotating speaker/panelist to share insights, programs, and advocacy outcomes.
EduAid-Africa Expo	Dec 15–17, 2025 (Hybrid)	Co-host a micro-session such as Girls' Education in Action or Policy Pathways for Girls' Inclusion.

APPENDIX — Overview of the Partnership Platforms

About Santos Creations Educational Foundation (SCEF)

Founded in 1997 and formally registered in 2010, SCEF is a Pan-African nonprofit transforming education through innovation, advocacy, and inclusive partnerships under its Vision 2035.
Key programs include:

> NESA-Africa (New Education Standard Award Africa) recognition and visibility platform for education changemakers.
>
> EduAid-Africa linking advocacy, funding, and social investment.
>
> Rebuild My School Africa, eLibrary Nigeria, and It's In Me Radio / NESA TV advocacy and digital empowerment arms.
> All initiatives align with SDG 4 and AU Agenda 2063, advancing equitable education for all.

About NESA-Africa

A continental platform celebrating changemakers, educators, policymakers, and institutions across 54 African countries and the diaspora.

2025/2026 Season:

> Dec 18 2025: Platinum Certificate Online Recognition Show
>
> Jan 28 2026: African Blue Garnet Education Awards
>
> Feb 26 2026: Blue Garnet & Gold Certificate Awards Gala

NESA-Africa serves as both a recognition system and a policy influence platform, linking public, private, and community actors through storytelling and impact visibility.

About EduAid-Africa

EduAid-Africa focuses on action, advocacy, and partnership building. It mobilizes funding, strengthens policy networks, and fosters school development through:

> EduAid-Africa Webinars (Oct 2025 – Jun 2026) – interactive regional sessions.
>
> EduAid-Africa Expo (Dec 2025) – hybrid continental showcase.

EduAid Policy & Partnership Network — connecting governments, NGOs, and research partners.

About EduAid-Africa Webinars

Running from October 2025 to June 2026, the EduAid-Africa Webinar Series provides a dynamic continental dialogue platform.
Each episode features:

Interactive discussions — Q&A, polls, and breakout rooms.

Cross-sector speakers — ministries, NGOs, teachers, and private-sector partners.

Gender balance and inclusivity — led by FAWE's facilitation and advocacy leadership.

Each session builds momentum toward NESA-Africa Award milestones, combining recognition with actionable policy advocacy.
